ORDER

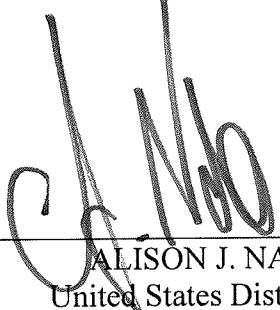

ALISON J. NATHAN, District Judge:

The Court is in receipt of the parties' proposed Joint Pre-Trial Order as well as the parties' motions in limine. These papers make reference to two witnesses whom Defendants intend to call at trial, and who, for privacy purposes, are listed as Employee A and Employee B. This substitution appears to be essentially an impermissible, unapproved redaction under Rule 4(A) of the Court's Individual Practices in Civil Cases. Moreover, the unapproved redactions make it difficult for the Court to evaluate Plaintiff's motion in limine.

Accordingly, the parties are ORDERED to resubmit by February 11, 2013, non-redacted copies of the proposed Joint Pre-Trial Order, the motions in limine, and any other filings that contain the unapproved redaction. Should the parties instead wish to file these papers in redacted form, they may request to do so pursuant to Rule 4(A). However, the parties should note that if Employee A and Employee B are permitted to testify at trial, their identities will, presumably, become a part of the public record in any event.

SO ORDERED:
